We have just received the largest and best selected stock of watches, clocks and jewelry ever brought to Hillsboro, which we can sell at lower prices than ever offered before. Any one wanting anything in our line will do well to call and see our goods and get our prices before calling elsewhere. Having no rent to pay or clerks to hire we can sell cheaper than any one else in the town.

Respectfully yours, JACOB SAWYER & SON, Sign of Big Watch. Hillsboro, Ohio.

The initial number of the Railroad Reporter, a monthly journal edited and published by J. H. Shade, Decatur, Illinois, has reached the mahogany table predated over by our literary editor. The paper is a lively, interesting sheet, such as any railroad might read with pleasure and profit, and deserving of encouragement and patronage. As it remarks it "starts out on the main line under a full head of steam, equipped with automatic coupler, air brakes, electric headlight and a good supply of sand." And it "will endeavor to run on schedule time, always freighted with the best interests of employees and managers."

Everything needed in the school room to be found at Detwiler's.

Rev. T. H. Jackson, D. D., will preach at the A. M. E. Church on Pleasant street, Sunday at 10 o'clock a. m., and also at 7 o'clock p. m. All are cordially invited to attend. Miss L. Nunley, an evangelist, will preach at the same place to-night at 7 o'clock.

The dwellers on East Walnut street are greatly elated over the projected improvements to be made on the lot formerly occupied by that relic of by-gone days known as the old mud house, on the southeast corner of Walnut and East streets. "They say" that Mr. Sam Scott, the present owner of the lot, purposes transforming that old eye-sore into an elegant little park, which shall be an object for admiration and pride to Walnut street, and an ornament to that section of the city.

Mrs. John Pearson, Mrs. Lotta F. Long, of Jamestown, Miss Hattie Ayres, and Mrs. H. A. Pavey left yesterday morning to attend the annual meeting of the Cincinnati branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, which is held this week at Zanesville, Ohio. Mrs. Pearson is the Secretary of the Society, and attends the meeting in that capacity. The other ladies are delegates sent by their respective churches. Miss Hattie Ayres is an accepted candidate for missionary work, and will probably leave to begin her labors in Mexico in about six weeks.

Mrs. H. S. Scarborough, in her report to the annual meeting of the District, as Secretary of the Hillsboro Auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, made the following deserved personal allusions: "The nine years residence of Mrs. Loyd was a benediction to our Auxiliary. Poised in the latest missionary intelligence and coming from the large assemblies, brimful of enthusiasm, she disseminated it with a liberal hand. In the revolution of the itinerant wheel, our three years President, Mrs. Ketcham, has been removed. We cheerfully bear tribute to her unflinching interest and the success of her administration. It is the prayer of our Society that in their new fields of labor these ladies may have the guidance and help of the Master."

Let others "blow" and bluster loud Of shoddy stocks, in which they're proud, And glory with a shameless grace 'Bout sales which only have a place In fiction sheer.

We'll sing, in accents clear and true, Of our vast store, of goods all new Now open to the public gaze, Commanding universal praise From far and near.

Our goods excel in all that goes To show the ready skill of those Who make. The stock from which they're made Is ever of that honest grade Which stands the test.

Our customers are friends, and they Are doing dilly willy that they may, With right good will, to bless the way For all who want for what they pay The most and best.

Our sales are large and bona fide. All the best trade our goods have tried Are happy in the thought that they Can do great good to all who're free To buy for cash.

Then come to us when goods you want. Our flag's unfurled, and it will flaunt Triumphant in the autumn air, Where what is done is on the square—Without a cheat.

Very respectfully, T. A. WALKER & CO., Smith Block, Hillsboro, O.

Salem Township Teachers' Reading Circle.

The teachers of Salem township and those intending to teach are requested to meet at Pricetown on October 16th, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing a teachers' reading circle. All lovers of improvement please respond.

ELLA S. CRANEY.

Hart-Rhodeshamel.

At the residence of the bride's parents in Piqua, Ohio, Miss Florence Rhodeshamel and Mr. Edgar Hart, of Columbus, were married yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. They immediately left for Columbus, where they will make their home and where Mr. Hart has already become one of the leading architects of the city. The many friends of Mr. Hart in this city extend their congratulations.

Something New.

Dr. D. S. Guthrie's new drug store is now open and ready for business. A large and elegant supply of drugs, paints, oils, fancy goods, jewelry, silver-ware, cutlery, queensware, notions and numerous other goods of both use and ornament are always kept in stock, at prices as low as the lowest. Also the best five and two for five cent cigars in the county. Try them. Remember the place, the blue front drug store, No. 17, North High street, Hillsboro, Ohio.

English Literature.

The English Literature Society held its second regular meeting at the Presbyterian parsonage last Monday evening. Thirty-four members were present.

The first six topics as suggested by "Meets' New Method for the Study of English Literature," were taken up and discussed by different members of the Society. The distinctive feature of the evening was Miss Grand-Girard's very interesting talk on the "Origin of Written Language."

The next meeting of the Society will be at Mrs. Eliza Cummings on Monday evening, October 18th.

Temperance Prayer Meeting.

By appointment of Miss Willard, the President of the National W. C. T. U., Saturday, the 10th inst., has been set apart as a day of prayer for the success and prosperity of the temperance cause, generally and especially for the coming "annual meeting" of the "National Union," which convenes on the 22d inst. in Minneapolis, Minn., and continues five days.

The Hillsboro Union have responded by calling a meeting for Saturday afternoon, the 16th, in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church. An interesting program has been arranged and good leaders provided. The attendance of all interested will secure a profitable meeting from two until four o'clock. There will also be a union meeting held at the M. E. Church on Sabbath evening.

By order of the President.

Sac'y W. C. T. U.

Hillsborough Chautauque Circle.

The Circle met on Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gregg, to effect its annual reorganization. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Maggie Gregg; 1st Vice President, Judge Geo. B. Gardner; Secretary, Mrs. H. A. Pavey; Treasurer, Rev. John Pearson. Executive Committee—Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Hoyt, Mrs. Wm. Gregg, Misses Maggie Hiestand, Cora B. Gamble and Fannie McKeenhan.

It was determined that the regular meetings of the Circle should be held on Thursday evening of each week. The next meeting of the Circle will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cotton Mather on Thursday evening next, at 7 o'clock.

One of the text books of the course for the ensuing year in "Walks and Talks in the Geological Field," by Prof. Alexander Winchell, of Ann Arbor University. The Chautauque Circles of Highland county have peculiar advantages for the study of this subject, inasmuch as Highland county is the most interesting geological field in Ohio. According to Prof. Orton, Chief of the Geological Survey of Ohio, this county presents a greater variety of geological features and better facilities for studying them, than any other locality in the State. The results of his investigations here are given in the "Report of Progress for 1871," about fifty pages being devoted to the geology of Highland county.

It is much to be regretted that no account of the geology of this locality appears in any of the regular volumes of Reports published by the Survey, for the "Report of Progress" referred to is scarce and difficult to obtain. It would prove a most interesting supplement to the text book named, and an invaluable guide to those who wish to make a practical study of our local geology.

NEW MARKET.

October 11th, 1886.

John F. Vance is the coal agent for this locality.

Rev. A. K. Murphy and J. B. Gruber took in the closing of the Exposition at Cincinnati Saturday last.

When you are in Hillsboro, call and see Garrett Bros. in their new drug store on High street, opposite the Court House.

Mr. E. O. Hetherington and wife, and Miss Belle Hetherington, of the Ridge, were in attendance at the quarterly meeting.

The following are letters remaining in this office called for: John Whelan, Miss Mary Bannan, John Kiser, C. A. Wilkin, P. M.

The following question was asked us not long since: "Have the two leading parties of this township sunk into oblivion?" If the enthusiasm is no greater on election day than last Saturday, it will look that way.

Quarterly meeting was held at the M. E. Church last Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Briggs occupied the pulpit on Saturday at 3 o'clock p. m., and Rev. Pearson on the night following, also on Sabbath at 10 a. m., and Miss Hattie Ayres at 8 p. m., her discourse being on the subject of Missions.

SELF-FAST.

October 11th, 1886.

Miss Anna McCallahan is on the sick list. Several persons from this vicinity took in the surprise at Joseph Smith's last Saturday.

Rev. J. I. Taggart and wife, of Bainbridge, were guests of Daniel Milburn and wife last Tuesday.

Rev. E. C. Follard preached at the M. E. Church last evening 7 o'clock last Sunday and will hereafter preach every two weeks.

Mr. F. H. Berryman and wife had a young lady come to see them last Tuesday. It comes to day. We their youngest daughter.

Mrs. George Hinch and Miss Mattie Olson are visiting friends near Carmel and Bainbridge and will take in the Greenfield fair before returning.

Messrs. U. C. Eubanks, of Carmel, Thomas Anderson, and Bruce Cummings and his two sons, Messrs. Mary and Martha, of Piqua, spent Sunday in this vicinity.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

George W. Lefevre Nominated by Acclamation for Auditor.

John M. Foust Secured the Nomination for Commissioner on the Tenth Ballot.

E. V. Grim, of Penn township, the Nominee for the Office of Inferiary Director.

The Republicans of Highland County met in convention at the Court House in Hillsboro, Monday morning, October 11th, to nominate candidates for County Auditor, County Commissioner and an Inferiary Director. The convention was called to order about 10:45 a. m., by H. D. Waddell, Chairman of Republican Central Committee of Highland county. Judge Geo. B. Gardner was chosen temporary chairman and upon taking the chair occupied the attention of the convention by a few remarks on the issues of the campaign and the importance of the work they were there assembled to perform.

Calvin Andrews was elected temporary Secretary. The convention then appointed the customary committees on permanent organization, credentials, rules, and order of business and resolutions, after which the convention adjourned to meet at half-past one o'clock p. m.

The convention assembled for afternoon session promptly at half-past one o'clock. The delegates were all present and the auditorium was crowded with people. The committee on permanent organization reported as follows: For Chairman, Captain D. M. Barrett; for Secretaries, Calvin Andrews and Isma Troth. The report was adopted.

Captain Barrett being presented made a few pointed remarks. The report of committee on rules and order of business was next given and adopted as read.

Nominations were next in order and candidates for Auditor were called for. W. H. Evans, of Madison, presented the name of George W. Lefevre. No other candidates were named and Mr. Lefevre was unanimously nominated by acclamation.

Candidates for Commissioner were next called for. This promised to be a little more exciting work. The townships were called by the Chair in alphabetical order and candidates were presented as follows:

Concord—H. H. Redkey.

Clay—Jno. M. Foust.

Dodson—J. C. Chaney.

Hamer—R. H. Hopkins.

New Market—David Wilkin.

Paint—F. I. Bumgarner.

Salem—H. A. Landess.

White Oak—B. F. Cox.

This placed eight candidates for Commissioner before the convention.

There were seventy-nine delegates. It therefore required forty votes to nominate. Balloting immediately began, the first ballot resulting as follows:

Redkey 7, Foust 6, Chaney 9, Hopkins 9, Wilkin 23, Landess 3, Cox 9, Bumgarner 12.

After the second ballot, the result of which was not materially different from the first, it was announced that Colonel Allen Miller, of Columbus, who expected to address the convention at the conclusion of its business, was obliged to leave on the train at 3:40 o'clock. As it was then within an hour of that time it was moved and carried that the rules be suspended and Colonel Miller be allowed to speak immediately. Colonel Miller was accordingly presented by the Chairman and held the close attention of the people for about forty-five minutes. He was just beginning to get thoroughly down to his work when his train was announced and he was obliged to leave.

Colonel Miller is a pleasant talker and makes a strong speech and it is to be regretted that he did not have a better chance.

After the speech, balloting for Commissioner was resumed, without result or material change, excepting a steady strengthening of the candidates Redkey and Foust. After the fifth ballot, Hopkins, who had three votes, was withdrawn from the Convention. After the eighth ballot Chaney's name was withdrawn. The ninth ballot stood as follows: Redkey 33, Foust 38, Wilkin 2, Bumgarner 1. It was now evident that the race was between Redkey and Foust, with the latter in the lead. The tenth ballot told the tale as follows: Redkey 33, Foust 42, Wilkin 2.

Having received a majority of all the votes in the Convention, John M. Foust, of Clay township, was declared the nominee of the Convention for the office of County Commissioner.

Candidates for Inferiary Director were then called for, and the names of the following gentlemen were presented to the Convention:

J. L. Lucas, Brushcreek.

Calvin Andrews, Fairfield.

Wm. Calvert, Jackson.

E. V. Grim, Penn.

J. M. McWilliams, Madison.

Mr. Andrews withdrew his name before the balloting began.

The first ballot resulted in no nomination, and McWilliams, who received the largest number of votes, withdrew in favor of Grim. This nominated Grim on the second ballot, which stood as follows: Lucas 13, Calvert 15, Grim 51.

E. V. Grim, of Penn township, was thereupon declared the nominee for Inferiary Director, and the Convention adjourned.

Prohibition Meeting.

There will be a Prohibition meeting at Houp's school-house near the Inferiary Thursday night, October 14, to be addressed by J. W. Shade and J. W. Kline. Everybody invited. By order Com.

SINKING SPRING.

Mrs. W. R. Shoemaker and Miss Sarah Hite opened the Sinking Spring school on Monday morning, October 11th. Owing to needed repairs going on in the schoolroom, the pupils of the lower room will meet in the hall for the present.

A respectable and attentive audience were out on Saturday night to hear the Prohibition speech of Rev. Martin Redkey, of Leeburg.

He is a fluent speaker, and his speech contained many good things which will temperance people might endorse, whether seeing with the third party or not.

Mrs. Mary Easton, with her grand-daughter, Miss Totie McClure, is spending a few days in the village, the guest of her son, Mr. Shadford Easton, preparatory to returning to Kansas City, Mo. She expects to start on next Friday for Ames, Easton's, who will accompany her on her journey as far as St. Louis.

The balmy breezes and gentle zephyrs of this fall October weather bring to us so many of the good things which are so plentiful in the country, that we are tempted to go out and enjoy them. On Wednesday, October 13th, at high noon, at the residence of Mr. James Pugsley, by Rev. Burdall, Mr. O. O. Wickerham, of Sinking Spring, will be married to Miss Jennie, eldest daughter of Mr. James Pugsley, of near South Charleston. Ollie has no doubt secured a prize, as Miss Jennie is a sprightly, sensible, amiable, cultured Christian lady. She, in turn, about a husband who will worthily wear and tenderly guard the jewel he has won. We extend to the happy couple our congratulations and heartiest wishes for future domestic happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Wickerham will spend the remainder of the week in Cincinnati, having good reason for selecting that city, and will return by way of Peabody on Saturday, to the paternal home of P. N. Wickerham.
